

2020-2021 Pay to Play Class Registration

ASA is offering pay to play classes for the 2020-2021. Registration is on a first-come-first served basis. This enrollment is part of the arts class request process. Submission of this form and the deposit completes the enrollment in the class. See website for specific details. A deposit of the first month's fees is due at the time of submission.

Dates: Monday – Friday (no class on early release days)
Time: See time in listing below
Location: Varies by class
Cost: $100 / month – Payment is due on the 1st of each month. Total fee for the class is $800. (There will not be a payment due for the month of December or March in order to offset the holiday and schedules of the school year.)

MUSIC

Introduction to Classical Guitar (grades 5th-6th)

Intro to Guitar - Period 5, Monday-Friday

This class offers 5th and 6th grade students the opportunity to study beginning classical guitar in a group setting. Students will need to provide a nylon-string guitar and supplies as outlined in the Guitar Department website to participate in the class. The majority of the instruction will be in classical music and learning to play finger style. The course includes music reading, classical guitar technique, and ensemble work. Students will receive a regular assessment in this class with a final grade. Students will still be concurrently enrolled in choir and piano. Limit to 15 students.

Introduction to Jazz Band (grades 7th-12th)

Period 9, Monday-Friday

An open-enrollment beginning jazz class, open to all instruments. Skills learned in this class will help students prepare for auditioning into the Jazz Orchestra class. Students will study jazz style, theory, improvisation, and listening skills. Audition or instructor permission required. Students will receive a regular assessment in this class with a final grade. Students will still be concurrently enrolled in their regular ASA arts program. Limit to 20 students.

Electric Guitar (grades 7th-12th)

This class offers students an opportunity to acquire basic and intermediate levels of playing on the electric guitar. Students will study a variety of styles including early blues, early rock, country-blues, classical rock, modern rock, and jazz. Students must provide their own equipment outlined by the instructor. Students may be considered for enrollment if they have successfully completed Guitar Foundations 1 or can demonstrate equivalent skills. Students will receive a regular assessment in this class with a final grade. Limit to 15 students.

Beginning/Intermediate Class Piano (grades 9th-12th)

Period 9, Monday-Friday

This class offers 9th through 12th grade students the opportunity to study classical piano in a group setting. Students work independently at full-size Yamaha digital keyboards with individual headphones. Class emphasizes solo literature from each stylistic period, ensemble literature, technique, and theory. This class will accept students at all levels of instruction. If you have always wanted to study piano as a high school student at ASA, this is your opportunity. Students will receive a regular assessment in this class with a final grade. Students will still be concurrently enrolled in their regular ASA arts program. Limit to 14 students.

THEATRE ARTS

Middle School Theatre 1: Foundations (grades 5th – 6th)

Period 3, Monday-Friday

Students in this course will begin their study of theatre covering elements of theatre history and literature, theory, performance, and production. This is the same course offered to incoming 5th grade students during the lottery enrollment period. This is the first in the course sequence for theatre students in 5th & 6th grade. Students will still be concurrently enrolled in choir and piano. Limit to 16 students.

How to Register:

We will be accepting registration forms starting on Monday, February 24, 2020 from current ASA students. Space in each program is limited. Registration is first-come, first-served. All students indicating interest after the class has been filled will be placed on a waiting list. Classes not meeting minimum enrollment requirements will be cancelled and deposits refunded.
