

ASA Performing Arts College Prep Student Application

Program and Process

- Students interested in applying to a collegiate program to seriously pursue a performing arts career path are invited to complete this application.
- Students are required to submit all required documents to the ASA Arts Director and PACP advisor by the deadline.
- The Arts Director, PACP advisor, and required arts departments, will determine student acceptance.

Students in the program will have one study hall period with the PACP advisor during their morning class schedule. The study hall will replace one academic class (either math or foreign language) as specified in the school policy and on the application. Additionally, students assigned a study hall in the afternoon may use the time for practice and college prep work, if space is available.

The PACP program will be overseen by an ASA faculty advisor. Students that are accepted into the program will see PACP on their regular school schedule. Students must meet specific written and performance requirements of the course to receive credit. The class will be graded pass/fail.
