2021-2022 Pay to Play Class Registration

ASA is offering pay to play classes for the 2021-2022. Registration is on a first-come-first served basis until the class is full. This enrollment is part of the arts class request process. Submission of this form and the deposit completes the enrollment in the class. See website for specific details. A deposit of the first month's fees is due at the time of submission. Classes not meeting minimum enrollment requirements will be cancelled and deposits refunded.

Dates: Monday – Friday (no class on early release days)

Time: See time in listing below

Location: Varies by class

Cost: $100 / month – Payment is due on the 1st of each month. Total fee for the class is $800.

7th-12th Grade Introduction to Jazz Band

Period 9, Monday-Friday

An open-enrollment beginning jazz class, open to all instruments. Skills learned in this class will help students prepare for auditioning into the Jazz Orchestra class. Students will study jazz style, theory, improvisation, and listening skills.

Prerequisite: Band Foundations or equivalent skills

10 students minimum - 15 students maximum

7th-12th Grade Electric Guitar

Period 9, Monday-Friday

This class offers students an opportunity to acquire basic and intermediate levels of playing on the electric guitar.

Students will study a variety of styles including early blues, early rock, country-blues, classical rock, modern rock, and jazz. Students must provide their own equipment outlined by the instructor.

Prerequisite: Guitar Foundations 1 or equivalent skills

10 students minimum - 15 students maximum

7th - 12th Global Guitar

Period 9, Monday-Friday

Global Guitar focuses on one country, continent, or region of the world each academic year in order to attain a thoughtful and thorough awareness of how the guitar and its immediate relative instruments are uniquely utilized by different musical cultures.

Prerequisite: Guitar Foundations 1 or equivalent skills

10 students minimum - 15 students maximum

How to Register:

Online registration begins Monday, April 19 from current ASA students. Space in each program is limited.
