

Arizona School for the Arts

2022-2023 Pay to Play Registration

ASA is offering pay to play classes for the 2022-2023. Registration is on a first-come-first served basis until the class is full. This enrollment is part of the arts class request process. Submission of this form and the deposit completes the enrollment in the class. See website for specific details. A deposit of the first month's fees is due at the time of submission.

Classes not meeting minimum enrollment requirements by June 3, 2022 will be canceled and deposits refunded.

Dates: Monday – Friday (no class on early release days)

Time: See time in listing below

Location: Varies by class

Cost: $100 / month – Payment is due on the 1st of each month. Total fee for the class is $800.

7th-12th Grade Electric Guitar

Period 9, Monday-Friday

This class offers students an opportunity to acquire basic and intermediate levels of playing on the electric guitar.

Students will study a variety of styles including early blues, early rock, country-blues, classical rock, modern rock, and jazz. Students must provide their own equipment outlined by the instructor.

Prerequisite: Guitar Foundations 1 or equivalent skills

10 students minimum - 15 students maximum

7th-12th Grade Music Theory and Composition

Period 9, Monday-Friday

This project-based course with two distinct halves: chamber music during the first semester and large ensemble writing during the second. This course would also touch the basics of notation, utilizing notation software, self-publishing, publishing through another entity, and promoting your music and yourself as a composer. Students will be able to have their compositions played by live musicians.

Prerequisite:

 Middle School - the highest level in any middle school music class or equivalent (ex: String Foundations 4 Viola)

 High School - the 3rd level of any high school music class or equivalent (Ex: Symphonic Winds Bassoon)

10 students minimum - 14 students maximum

How to Register:

Online registration begins Monday, March 21 for current ASA students. Space in each program is limited. Registration is first-come, first-served until the class is full. To ensure your enrollment in the course, have your registration form in by June 3. All students indicating interest after the class has been filled will be placed on a waiting list. Classes not meeting minimum enrollment requirements will be canceled and deposits refunded.

Please pay the first month fee of $100 as a deposit in the ASA School Pay online system. Your registration in the course will not be considered activated until this form and your deposit are completed.

1. Go to SchoolPay: <https://www.schoolpay.com/parent/mip/McdP>
2. Make deposit Payment to "Pay-to-Play"
3. Save payment receipt as a PDF
4. Upload receipt to the registration form below

Click here for the 2022-2023 Pay-To-Play Registration Form