

Arizona School for the Arts

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER
Middle School: Grades 6-8
School Year 2023-2024

ASA's mission is to inspire creative thinkers and leaders through providing an innovative concentration in college preparation informed by the performing arts.

This faculty member works with students to build a historical consciousness and explore how our past influences our present and future. This faculty member designs and delivers curriculum to one grade level. Students develop key literacy skills and continue to practice these skills through Socratic discussions, project-based learning, and investigative techniques. Each grade will focus on a specific historical time period, regions, and theme, allowing for connections between historic events and themes related to the human condition.

ASA's academic curriculum is rigorous, relevant and aligned with ASA's mission and commitment to equity. Curriculum development and implementation reflects State standards layered with ASA's innovative college prep focus that fosters intellectual curiosity and emphasizes active engagement, project-based learning, discussion, research, advanced written and oral skills, inquiry, and collaboration.

Class sizes are approximately 28 students. Academic teachers teach 4-5 classes each day, and have 2.5 hours of prep time for curriculum planning and integration, grade level team meetings centered on student needs, and assessment. Teachers are required to differentiate curriculum using a variety of supplemental resources to support student growth and high achievement. This teacher works closely with the social studies department and their grade level team.

ASA is devoted to fostering an inclusive environment where the enjoyment and benefits of a college preparatory and performing arts education are accessible to the entire community, and where all voices are listened to and valued, regardless of race, gender, and sexual orientation.
