

Questions? Contact the director of the performing ensemble or department team leader.

Band

Derek Sanchez – sanchez@goasa.org

Ballet

Gia Firiano – firicano@goasa.org

Choir

Dana Bender – bender@goasa.org

Guitar

Josh Pierce – pierce@goasa.org

Piano

Dianne Cangelosi – cangelosi@goasa.org

Strings

Allyson Wuenschel – wuenschel@goasa.org

Theatre

Rob Chambers – chambers@goasa.org

Extra Info for Rehearsals and Performance Day

Food/Drinks:

Students can bring a snack for rehearsals on ASA campus. There will be snacks available for purchase during the ASA campus rehearsals. No outside food, drink, or use of the vending machines is allowed when at the Phoenix Art Museum or Central United Methodist Church. Students can bring a water bottle.

Electronics:

Bring a cell phone to be able to communicate with parents. There are no public phones. Students may bring books, cards, games, ipods, ipads, and e-readers. No Laptops at the performance.

ASA does not accept any responsibility for lost, stolen, or damaged items.

Student School IDs:

Students do not need to wear their IDs at the performance. All students will receive a performers bracelet. Students need to wear an ID during school hours.

Drop Off/Pick Up:

- Make a meeting place with your family or ride
- Here are some recommended landmarks:
 - The red dinosaur in front of the Phoenix Art Museum
 - The main lobby of the Phoenix Art Museum
 - The large rounded sculpture in Chase Gallery at Phoenix Art Museum
 - The fountain in the Central United Methodist Church Courtyard

Parking:

There is available parking in the main lot at the Phoenix Art Museum and 2 lots at Central United Methodist. Additional parking is available at ASA and surrounding neighborhood.

Concert Attire

Theatre and Dance: Costumes as assigned by the theatre and dance department

Music: Any combination of black opaque dress pants, black opaque dress shirts to the beltline, black opaque dresses, black opaque dress skirts, black sweaters, and black dress shoes