Celebrate ASA's 30th

As Leah Fregulia mentioned, Arizona School for the Arts is celebrating our 30th year providing students with an excellent college prep education informed by the performing arts. ASA's dedication to its mission is the north star through campus moves and changes, faculty and staff additions, and grade level expansions, and our alumni are the legacy of that mission and the eyes and ears of the school's growth.

We would love to see what you saw, so we have a challenge for you, a friendly competition among our alumni classes: send us your pictures! The class with the most usable pictures submitted by the April issue of Pigeon Post will win bragging rights PLUS all members of that class who submitted photos will be entered into a drawing to receive a voucher for a free item from ASA's new online store...check out that alumni merch!

Please send your scanned or digital photos with your name, graduating class, and the who, what, when, and why of the picture to alumni@goasa.org. If you do not have the ability to scan your photos or negatives, you can send them to the Alumni Relations Coordinator, Carolyn Smith, and she will scan them and get them back to you. Your pictures may be used throughout the year in social media posts.

Let's see your ASA memories!

Last May, the Classes of 1999-2004 used the opportunity of attending Showcase to meet up and have a reunion. Spearheaded by Kelsey Wolf-Donnay, a dedicated committee looked at several options and decided a casual drop-in at The Vig on Wednesday night followed by Showcase on Thursday night would be a fun and relaxed way to catch up with one another.

If you would like to organize a reunion for your class (or a combination of classes), we are happy to help with emails and mentions in the Pigeon Post, but the time to start organizing is now to allow for your busy classmates to mark their calendars and make travel arrangements if need be. Please reach out to us at alumni@goasa.org if you want some broadcasting support in your efforts.

The ASA Signature Series performances are the culmination of each semester's artistic work for our students. This year the Fall Mainstage Musical, Gypsy, and Masterworks promise to be fantastic entertainment, but only one event asks you to be part of the show.

Kick off the holiday season at Choral Collage because the Choir Department is inviting all ASA Choir alumni to stand up and sing "Betelehemu". Do you remember the choreography? Then you may be asked to join our current students on stage! Tickets are selling fast, so reserve yours at the online Box Office.

We'd love to see you there:
